Vol. V. GLENDALE, LOS ANGELES COUNTY, CAL., SATURDAY, JULY 31, 1909. No. 14

THE MUNICIPAL LIGHTING PLANT

Trustees Practically Decided to Buy the Glendale Light and Power Co.'s Plant within City Limits —Price to be $25,000

Unless the city trustees acting in conjunction with the advisory board, reverse themselves, the city of Glendale will accept the offer of Mr. L. C. Brand, of the Glendale Light and Power company, to sell to the municipality all the property of that concern within corporate limits for the sum of $25,000. Officially the trustees have taken no action in regard to the matter, but meeting with the members of the advisory committee Wednesday evening last previous to the meeting of the trustees, it was decided unanimously to accept Mr. Brand's offer. Of the advisory committee there were present Messrs. Vesper, Coker and Chase. The matter had been under serious consideration ever since the bond election and although the eight members of the joint committee present all agreed that the price was high, it was considered for the best interests of the city, taking all connected matters into consideration, to pay the price. In reference to the price, Mr. Brand when he made the offer informed the committee that he had been considering the sale of the plant to the Pacific Light and Power company for a much larger sum at the time the bond election took place, that the Pacific company had it under serious consideration and that no offer less than $25,000 would be considered. He made the statement also that the plant has cost him nearly twice this sum. An inventory price would not, come up to the figure the city will pay. The sale, however, carries with it the contract Mr. Brand has with the power company to furnish electricity at from 2½ to 4½ cents per kilowatt. This contract runs for a year and a half yet and gives the lessees the privilege of renewal for five years. While there is just a possibility that there might be some difficulty about transferring this contract if the power company desired to object, the trustees have the assurance of the officials of that company to the effect that no objection will be made; on the contrary, they will execute a new contract with the city. The sale carries also the transfer of the high tension wire bringing the power into the city, with all transformers, etc. In regard to that portion of the plant outside the city, Mr. Brand is willing to sell that or any portion of it to the city if the limits of the corporation be extended so as to take in more of that territory, the price to be left to arbitration. It is probable that at the next meeting of the board official action will be taken which will clinch the sale, although a number of details remain to be worked out satisfactorily to both parties before conclusion of the deal. Of course, this does not mean as announced in a Los Angeles paper that the municipal lighting plan will be given up; on the contrary, the reverse is the fact. It is likely to indicate, however, that Glendale will be able to buy power instead of being put to the expense of installing a generating plant.

OBITUARY.

Romancy Tallman was born in Jones county, Iowa, on November 25, 1855. From there she moved with her parents to Western college, where she attended school and college, and laid the foundation of character which shaped her future Christian life and service. In 1883 she was united in marriage to Albert Sherman, who with the only child, Ray, survive. Like so many other faithful Christians, she was converted in early childhood. She united with the United Brethren church and later with the Methodist Episcopal church. It is no exaggeration to say that she lived a beautiful, consecrated Christian life. She passed away at her home in Glendale, Saturday morning, July 24th, 1909.

Funeral services which were simple, according to her wish, were held in the First Methodist Episcopal church, Glendale, Cal., July 26th, at 10 a. m. The pastor, J. F. Humphrey, took for his text Isaiah 61:3: "To give unto them beauty for ashes." Interment was in Forest Lawn cemetery, Tropico, California.

Her charming manner and many accomplishments will no doubt win for her deserved success.

W. C. T. U.

Our society is called upon to mourn the death of one of our number, Mrs. Mattie Sherman, who departed this life July 24, 1909, at 3:35 a. m.

In her death the Union has lost one of its most worthy members. We, therefore, as members treasure the noble virtues that were so beautifully exemplified in her life and hope that we by her patient suffering may learn more fully to put our trust in God, and thereby be enabled to display the beauties of love and friendship which she possessed. We extend our deepest sympathy to the members of her family and to all who mourn her loss, especially her dear old mother, whose death will probably be hastened by the sad news. Our sister has gone. Her place is vacant. Her work on earth is ended. She has gone as we believe to a better country. Personally the writer mourns the loss of a true and trusted friend. We are glad to have had the opportunity to show our sympathy and bestow upon her flowers and other evidences of our appreciation while she was living. Our Union attended her funeral in a body and at the grave as each one passed they dropped a small bouquet of flowers upon the casket. Her son is also an honorary member of our Union.

"Speak the kind word, do the kind act,
Ere the years have onward sped
In the grave I cannot hear you
Say it now not when I'm dead.
"Oft the way is rough and lonely
And my wounded heart has bled
Speak some words of hope and comfort
While I'm living, not when 'dead.'"

Regular meeting of W. C. T. U. in M. E. church Friday, August 6, at 2:30. Program will be in charge of our president, Mrs. Gaylord, and will consist of an oratorical contest by young people. They will also furnish special music. Every one who is interested in young people and the temperance cause is earnestly requested to be present.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE PARTY.

A few of the friends of Mrs. J. L. Whitaker of Ninth street gave that lady a surprise Friday evening of last week when they gathered at her home to wish her "many happy returns," etc. With the able assistance of her daughter, Miss Ina, as an accomplice, the affair appeared to be a genuine surprise to the lady honored and was a thorough success as a happy reminder of the completion of another well-spent year in a useful life.

The rooms of the pleasant home were cheerfully decorated with bright bouquets of roses and other flowers and plants brought by the guests. Progressive whist was the principle feature of the evening's diversion; prizes were won by Mrs. J. C. Sherer and Mr. Prosser Penn, consisting respectively of a brass vase and a Handy Manuel. Sandwiches, coffee, cakes, and confectionery were served. The following guests were present: Mr. and Starr, Mr. and Mrs. Kirby, Mrs. Wm. Mitchell, Miss Frances Eyre, Dr. and Mrs. D. W. Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Sherer, Miss Emma Penn, Miss Frank, Mr. Frank, Mr. Prosser Penn, Mr. G. A. Ganahl.

THE BURBANK ELECTRIC ROAD

The Bonus is Promised with Some to Spare, but Having Trouble Over Right-of-Way

The meeting held last week of parties interested in the extension of the Pacific Electric road along the foothills from Casa Verdugo to Burbank, did not accomplish much but to report progress. It was announced that Mr. L. C. Brand had agreed to an extension of time for two weeks longer, which is to August 15th. It will be remembered that it is Mr. Brand who proposes to build the road in accordance with the proposition made some time ago which is to the effect that property owners raise a bonus of thirty thousand dollars and a right of way. Dollars thus far have proved to be far more easy to secure than rights of way and hence the difficulty of getting the matter closed. More than the necessary bonus has been pledged, but a few obdurate property owners stand in the way of the project. Most of the land along the proposed route has contributed to the bonus fund as much as $75.00 an acre. Mr. J. C. Oestergaard continues to work indefatigably for the project and there are several men having such large interests in this section that it seems as if the matter will be still brought to a successful issue. Among these property owners may be mentioned Mr. O. J. Stough, Mr. L. C. Brand, Mr. Harry Chandler (of the Times), and Mr. Dan Campbell. The Pacific Electric company has refused to take up the scheme although it is probably depended upon to take over the road after it is constructed. That company in its ultimate progress up the San Fernando valley evidently prefers the lower and more direct rather than the foothill route. The road if completed would bring undoubtedly to this beautiful foothill region where so many attractive building sites abound a class of home builders endowed with sufficient resources to enable them to develop to the utmost that most attractive of all our valley attractions, the mesas and foothill benches looking toward the ocean.

ADVERTISER GETS THE PLUM.

The other day a merchant in a nearby town saw a farmer receiving goods at the station from a Chicago mail order house. The goods were in his line and the same he had carried in his store for years. He approached the farmer and said, "I could have sold you every article you have there for less money than you paid the Chicago house, and saved you the freight besides." "Then why on earth didn't you say so," answered the farmer. "I have taken the Muscotah Record for years and have never seen a line about your selling these goods. The Chicago house sent advertising matter to me asking for my trade and they got it."

GLENDALE, CAL., JULY 31, 1909

A week has gone by without any startling outbreak from the professors of the Chicago university. Having decided however that woman is the root of all evil, what else remains to do?

The Thaw case makes us wish for some of the business-like procedure of the English courts where if a man is convicted of murder he is hanged, and if acquitted on the ground of insanity, he goes to an asylum for practically the rest of his natural life.

What's the matter with the south end of Glendale avenue inside the city limits? Is it not time that the improvement of this portion of the leading avenue into our city was improved? Attempts have twice been made to do this work and according to the well-recognized rule, the third time is bound to be a success. It's a good thing, gentlemen of the city council, push it along.

Our columns are opened this week to our friends the Socialists for the propaganda of their theory. It is not our theory, but it is one of general interest—Socialists, indeed, insist that it is vital—and any theory that is held sincerely by any considerable body of our fellow citizens, may be discussed within reasonable limitations in the columns of this paper. If the arguments advanced by our contributors seem to our readers to be fallacious, space is at their disposal for refutation.

DICTATED BY WISDOM.

In deciding, as they have practically done, to buy of Mr. L. C. Brand that portion of the Glendale Light and Power company's plant within the city limits to incorporate it with the city's municipal lighting system, the city trustees have, we believe, acted wisely. While the price to be paid ($25,000) may be considered high from one standpoint, it should be borne in mind that there are a number of things to be considered aside from the tangible evidences of poles and wires. It will probably enable the city to dispense with the building of generating works and will go far towards assisting in the harmonious working out of the city's plans.

In Los Angeles the other day an unfortunate woman, broken in health and without means, went to the county hospital to spend the balance of her days as a pauper. The best years of her life have been devoted to her children for whom she toiled for years far beyond her strength and now that they have reached manhood and womanhood, as counted by years, they leave the mother to become a charge upon the county. The worst ingrate that the poor old world carries on through space to Nothingness or the Otherwise, is the child who neglects the parent who nurtured it. The law should strip them of the last dollar of their pitiable increment of worldly pelf to give to the parents the comforts of life in their declining years.

Dr. Eliot's "Five-Foot" library does not grow in favor if we can judge by the comments of the newspapers which seem to be about ten to one against it. The selection of poetry in particular is peculiar, at least. Who will agree with the learned doctor that "Tam-O'Shanter" is the most worthy production of Burns, or that the best of Tennysons, among so much that is very essence of poetry, is "Becket?" But after all is said in criticism of the list, it has really answered an excellent purpose. The criticism has been educational, and will be—may it continue yet awhile! And after all the opinion of any man of applied learning on any subject is not so much in the idea that he speaks with infallible authority, as that he suggests and starts in motion a train of thoughts in the minds of those who hear.

SIGNALLING TO MARS.

In regard to signalling to Mars, Prof. William H. Pickering, of Harvard College observatory, writes to the Scientific American:

"The writer would repeat that the proposition of signalling to Mars is merely a question of the most elementary mathematics. It is a problem which any astronomer can work out in ten minutes' time and which involves no uncertainty whatever. When Mars is at a distance of one hundred millions of miles from the earth, a beam of sunlight half a mile square would appear to its inhabitants of the same brightness as a fifth magnitude star. On account of the brightness of the earth, however, it would be quite invisible to eyes resembling our own, unless aided by a powerful telescope. Whether there are the equivalents of human eyes and telescopes upon Mars is another question entirely and has nothing whatever to do with the case."

ABOUT ADVERTISING.

We have no quarrel with the business man who will not advertise. He is probably doing the best he can, just as the rest of us are in a different way. He is simply built that way and lacks the power to triumph over an unfortunate handicap, which keeps him back in the race. He does not love the giddy whirl of hustling life. He has merit and is conscious of it and possibly has ambitious flittings across his mental plates at times, of an idea that sometime the world will find him out. He is content with the world and himself; the procession moves on, even the small boy with the water pail that brings up the rear passes him by—so does the crowd that rushes on to the place that advertises—but they are not wearing out the floorway of his store nor mussing up the pile of goods on the counter; he doesn't have to exert himself—blessed be obscurity and forgetfulness!

PUTTING THE CLOCK FORWARD.

A scheme is being agitated in England and by some people of influence in the United States also, by which the summer days are to be lengthened out at the latter end. This is to be accomplished by setting the clock back one hour, so that the miserable wretches who have to work for a living may have an additional hour of recreation in the evening. But to our untutored mind there seems to be an objection to the plan which we believe will make it unpopular, and that is that the day's work will have to begin an hour earlier. The simple expedient of moving forward the hands of the clock, may be an effectual means of lying by proxy, but we fear it would not work. It will be found by experience after the novelty wears off that getting up sometime before sunrise on a summer morning is just as difficult when the hands of the clock indicate the hour of six a. m., say, as when they used to tell the truth and point to 5 o'clock. It is a rather shabby thing too, to put the responsibility for our poor human frailities upon an inanimate object such as the old family clock which perhaps has an abundance of sins of its own to answer for. It may be all well enough to put the clock forward an hour in the evening, but the real benefactor of humanity will be the genius who can tell us how to stop it for an hour about getting up time.

THE LAUREL CANON ROAD.

We notice that the county supervisors are beginning to figure on completing the Laurel Canon road from Hollywood over the range into the San Fernando valley to nowhere in particular, but to end somewhere over in the direction of Lankershim. The ostensible excuse for this expenditure is that the residents of the Lankershim section may have easier access to Hollywood and the beach than they have at present by the Cahuenga Pass road. We do not understand that there is any particular demand for the completion of this road among the people of Lankershim. The road would no doubt open up for sale and consequent settlement to some limited extent the land of some one who is anxious to see the project carried to completion. It is a scheme which can be of benefit only to the immediate section which it is tributary to and a proposition to build such a road at the expense of the people of the whole county is without shadow of excuse. If Mr. Eldridge takes the money required for this expensive job out of the fund of his own road district, the rest of the world will not seriously object, but as it was started with money from the general road fund, it is no doubt the intention of the supervisors to continue to draw upon that fund for its completion, if completed. The lonesome beneficiaries of this work thus far are Supervisor Eldridge and his friends who constitute the Bungalow Land Company and a very few others. They secured land up near the head of Laurel Canon which had but little value and then through Mr. Eldridge's efforts took money from the general fund of the county and gave value to the property. Not only was the money expended on the main road towards the summit, but on a branch from it leading along a ravine toward and past the residence of Mr. Eldridge. We presume that an extension of this and other roads necessary to open up Bungalow Land is also contemplated.

PATRIOTISM AND THE TARIFF.

The Los Angeles Times in a recent issue printed a very patriotic editorial upon President Taft and his position in regard to the tariff. The gist of it was that Mr. Taft is the president of the whole of the people of our country and is compelled in consequence to act for the whole and not for a part, and that good citizens will support him in doing so however they may be disappointed in some respects.

This is all very well and proper, but the writer is careful to state that the Times still "stands pat." The question may well thrust itself upon the mind of the reader of such a mental output, is the president of the United States the only high official among the representatives of the people, who can afford to be inspired by national patriotism in time of peace? And a host of other questions come trooping after. Is a United States senator, for instance, performing his sworn duty to support the constitution and all that, when he takes no interest in a tariff bill from any other than a local standpoint, regarding it as something to trade upon and to barter with? The stand-pat element of the Republican party did not choose Mr. Taft because he was thoroughly a candidate to their liking; they would have preferred Mr. Fairbanks or some other, but the strong man in the white house and the record of Mr. Taft itself, made him the candidate of the people at large and the organization accepted him, thinking no doubt to control him. It was a speech of Mr. Taft's at a college commencement in New England while he was secretary of war in which he declared himself in favor of a revision of the tariff downward, that showed him to have independent and patriotic ideas of what a tariff law should be which caused the GLENDALE NEWS to name him for president in February, 1907, before any other paper in California that we have heard of did so. We take a reasonable measure of pride, therefore, in noting that President Taft seems to be making good, although the present situation in Washington seems to be almost a deadlock and the result is in doubt. With our two stand pat senators, California stands with Mr. Aldrich and "the interests" instead of with President Taft and the 80,000,000 consumers who constitute the people of the United States. We had better revise our ideas of statesmanship and cease to regard the tariff as a "local issue." then possibly in the fullness of time we may send some broader browed representatives to the congress of the nation.

SOCIALISM.

(Communicated)

For the Co-Operative Commonwealth
I Dwellheartmg Amg..... ids ETA

In opening this subject for a general discussion we respectfully ask our opponents if there be any, to lay aside all prejudice, for we wish only to appeal to the heart, the conscience and the intellect. And we invite your keenest criticism and closest logic. Turn on all the candle power you have, knowing that light banishes darkness and then truth is always stronger than error. This test we fearlessly seek. We will take our stand on the principle that the welfare of all is of greater importance than the private interests of the few.

We believe that this principle cannot be successfully assailed, nor can it be carried out by any other method than the collective ownership and control of all the means of production and distribution. We challenge the refutation of these principles from any stand point and especially from a Christian standpoint. Who is there that has not the heart of a savage that can look around and abroad at the general conditions and be satisfied? Do we wish to see this bitter strife, this merciless war go on forever? If you oppose Socialism we challenge you to defend the present order of capitalism with all its train of evils, of rent, interest and profit, of exploitation of labor, of child slavery, of sweatshops, slum tenements, saloons and brothels, with all the crime, want and suffering that follows in its wake.

If you defend and accept capitalism you must defend and accept its fruits. So long as private interests are held paramount to the public good, so long as the dollar is above the man conditions will continue to grow worse.

We can neither silence nor evade the appeal of suffering humanity that is all about us in a life and death struggle for existence. So we appeal to all to give this subject their most earnest consideration to the end that we may hasten that glad day when brotherhood and justice will reign supreme; when we shall cease to proclaim a doctrine one day in a week that we make impossible to practice the other six.

The competitive system requires that the many remain poor that the few may become rich. Those have ever been poor, who have done the useful work of the world; those who have raised the food stuffs, made the clothes, taught the schools and preached the truth.

Competition is a gambler's game where the shrewdest and most unscrupulous win. Competition for the means of life, is war, and war is hell. In this gambler's game the ignorant, innocent and honest are cheated by the cunning and conscienceless. In this war the fierce, relentless and strong crush and trample the better and less aggressive men, women and children; and yet profess to be disciples of the Prince of Peace! Attempt to defend such a brutal and inhuman, unchristian state of society, thus helping to perpetuate suffering and want in the midst of plenty. The only alternative to competition is co-operation (brotherhood) and that is Socialism.

Alcoholic Medication.

The Prohibition party as a party has never made any issue on the question of the use of alcohol for medicinal, mechanical and scientific purposes, although many individuals both inside and outside the party entertain and advocate a more strenuous radicalism than the absolute destruction of the traffic for beverage purposes, which is all the party has ever declared for.

The most drastic anti-alcoholic legislation ever enacted in this country has been done by the Republican legislature of Kansas, which makes prohibition absolutely complete. Liquor may not even be sold for medicinal, scientific or mechanical purposes. On February 11th, 1909, the bill passed the senate by a vote of 33 to one, six senators being absent. It was afterwards passed by the assembly; as it went to the house it cut out all drug store permits and restored the county inquisition law. The Republican Governor, Stubbs, has since reported the law working well. Officials that connive at its violation are ousted from office. And Kansas has not yet faded from the map. This is the state that the editor of the NEWS cited some time age as evidence of McKinley and Roosevelt prosperity,—the effect of the National Republican policy. Why do logicians of this order not sometimes cite some anti-prohibition states as an argument for this purpose instead of some state like Maine or Kansas where at least an imperfect prohibition has been for some years in force?

The great mass of the people, even those whose sympathies are with total abstinence, and even of the physicians, seem to be unaware as yet of the great change that is taking place among leaders of the profession in regard to alcoholic medication.

The idea almost universally still persists that alcoholic liquors are at least useful if not absolutely necessary as remedies.

Sir Victor Horsley, London, Eng., to the British Medical Association at Toronta, August, 1906, said: The (Canadian) medical profession as a whole, has a hostile rather than a friendly feeling towards alcohol. The profession at home (Great Britain) has the same hostile attiude on the whole that you have, and I mean not against alcohol merely as a beverage, but they have found out what alcohol's real value is a drug; my opinion, at any rate, is that it is practically nil.

Dr. G. Sims Woodhead, of the University of Cambridge, Cambridge, Eng., on the same occasion, said:

"Men who at one time looked upon alcohol as their sheet anchor in febril diseases are now satisfied that it exercises an absolutely deleterious effect upon the resisting power of the patient."

Sir James Barr, dean of medical faculty, University of Liverpool, Brit. Med. Jour., says: "If during the last quarter of a century I have prescribed almost no alcohol, it is because I have found very little reason for its use, and it seemed to me my patients get on better without it."

The Century magazine, Nov., 1905, published a list of leading physicians including Drs. Hoosely and Woodhead above mentioned, and Sir Frederick Trenes (who operated on King Edward for apendicitis), Dr. A. Pierce Gould, Middlesex hospital, London; Dr. Nathan S. Davis (d. 1904, dean of the Rush Med. Col., Chicago), Dr. H. D. Didama, late dean Med. Col. Syracuse, N. Y.; Dr. J. S. Cain, dean Med. Col. University of the South, Nashville, Tenn.; Dr. Henry H. Hewes, Harvard Med. School, Boston; Dr. W. S. Hall, Northwestern University, Chicago; Dr. John Madson, Milwaukee, Med. Col.; Prof. Frank Woodbury, Philadelphia; Dr. Geo. Dock, Ann Arbor, Mich. Any amount of testimony from men eminent in the profession might be adduced to show that the practice of medicine would be on a better basis if no such substance as alcohol existed."

The fact that the common run of physicians still use it, and that many eminent in the profession have not yet got their eyes open, only shows that in this as in other transitions from darkness to light, all minds are not equally illuminated at once. But there is an illumination which shows the uselessness and even harmfulness of alcohol in medicine, and I believe it will become universal.

The Heart.

Dr. Geo. Rosenfeld, Chicago, 1906, says: "It is deplorable that physicians yet cling to the idea that alcohol is a heart stimulant.

Prof. Geo. W. Webster, M. D., of Chicago, says: "Dr. E. Destree clearly demonstrated that the total work-product of a muscle is greater without alcohol. This seems to show why alcohol inebriates bear pnuemonia so badly." It weakens the heart.

The Lungs.

M. Legendre, M. D., Paris, in London Lancet, says: "Alcohol by weakening the lungs, is a frequent cause of consumption."

Prof. W. S. Hall, Ph. D., M. D., says: "The use of alcohol weakens the lungs and makes one more liable to lung disease than if he abstained from it."

F. W. Pottinger, M. D., Supt. Sanitarium, Monrovia, Cal.: "I do not feel that I can emphasize strongly enough the harm that can be done by the use of alcohol in tuberculosis. . . The fact has been established that alcoholism is a very potent factor in the causation of tuberculosis. I find it not only unnecessary in treatment, but believe it to be contra indicated."

Dr. S. A. Knoff, N. Y. Med. Jour.: "Tuberculosis has never been prevented and never been cured by alcohol. On the other hand alcohol is the most decided of any of the predisposing causes we know."

And how many there are who still swear by "Old Rock and Rye."

No doubt the alcoholic medication superstition is one of the mightiest strongholds of the liquor business, with all its attendant evils. And I have little doubt but that a few years more experience will show that the Kansas people are wise in their radicalism on this question, and that the other states will have to come to their position.

SUGGESTIVE QUESTIONS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Rev. Dr. Linscott for the International Newspaper Bible Study Club.

Aug. 1st, 1909.

(Copyright, 1909, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D.D.)

Close of Paul's Missionary Journey, Acts xviii:1-22.

Golden Text—In the world ye shall have tribulation; be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.—John xvi:33.

Verse 1—What remarkable thing had immediately preceded Paul's start for Corinth?

There is no record of a vision or any special Divine instruction, for Paul going to Corinth; but is a good man as much guided by God when he is not conscious of it, as when he is, and why? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Verses 2-3—What was the attraction between Aquila and Paul?

How do you account for it that there is an affinity between men of the same trade?

Have labor men a perfect right to band themselves together, for mutual protection, against the undue demands of capital?

Has capital a moral right to protect itself against labor?

Have business men a right to protect themselves against undue competition?

Paul worked at his trade as a tent maker for a living, is there any suggestion in this that modern preachers should do a similar thing?

A large proportion of the membership of the present day Christian church have the latent ability to preach, ought not this ability to be developed, thus giving to every local church several preachers, and the work being divided between them, would be better done than at present, and each preacher make his own living?

Verse 4—Is it the duty and privilege of every adult Christian to be engaged at least every Sunday, in some specific spiritual work?

Why did Paul, in the beginning, in Corinth, confine his work to the Sabbath day and to the Jews?

Verses 5-6—What effect did the visit of Silas and Timothy have upon Paul?

If a good man is ever so much in earnest, may the visit of another earnest man intensify his spirit?

When a man does his very best in preaching, and fails to make converts, is he entitled to as much credit as if he had great success?

Did Paul blame himself for his failure, and that the Jews resisted and blasphemed; and ought a man of God always take a similar position in like circumstances?

Verse 7—Has it ever been in the past, and is it to-day, sometimes necessary for a good man to leave the church and start a meeting of his own?

Verse 8—Is belief in Jesus an intellectual effect, or is it spiritual and supernatural?

Verses 9-11—What method did God take in this instance to talk to Paul?

Why is it that so few Christians have any experience of any special message from God?

Do Christians speak as much as they ought for Christ to-day, and is there any fear of being hurt by speaking for him?

Verses 12-17—Can any man expect, even in these days, to be unflinchingly faithful to God, and not make some people angry?

How do you estimate the character of this man Gallio, and what is there in him worthy of imitation?

Verses 18-22—Sum up the effects of Paul's efforts as revealed in this lesson.

Lesson for Sunday, Aug. 8th, 1909. Paul's Instructions to the Thessalonians. I Thess. v:12-24.

J. Bailey Hickman of Tropico, and Thomas Gillett, Sr., of Sycamore Canyon, returned the first of the week from a week's hunting expedition in the Malibu country, thirty miles or more above Santa Monica. They report a most pleasant trip, with a good supply of small game, for camp use, while a deer was the best trophy the hunt afforded. A few friends of Mr. Hickman and Mr. Gillett are enjoying a savory taste of venison.

Andrew Stevenson, the Tropico butcher and all-around good fellow, is the proud owner of a handsome Buick touring car. The Baraca and Philathia Sunday School classes of the First Methodist church of Los Angeles, enjoyed a hay ride to Bee Rock, Griffith Park, Tuesday evening. The young people met at the corner of Sixth and Hill streets at 7 o'clock and the ride to the park was made while the light of day was dying. At the park games were played and an elaborate luncheon was served. At quite a late hour the journey homeward was begun and the ride in the moonlight was very much enjoyed.

TROPICO CHURCHES.

Presbyterian.

Next Sunday morning the pastor of this church will preach as usual and there will be the regular good music. At 7:45 in the evening the fifth of the series of union services will be held at this church. Rev. J. H. Heney, pastor of the Methodist church, being absent on his vacation, Rev. McAdams, a worker in the Methodist church, will occupy the pulpit. Our people have not heard Brother McAdams and will be very glad to greet him then. Special music will be furnished on this occasion.

The attendants of our Sunday school are looking eagerly forward to the picnic at Long Beach on August 20th. Parents will please remember that while the superintendent and teachers will do all they can to look after pupils at their picnic at Long Beach, they cannot assume the entire responsibility. It will be much better if some one especially interested will go with the little ones.

The Ladies' Aid Society of this church held an interesting session in the church parlors, Wednesday afternoon. Much business of importance to the society was transacted.

Notwithstanding the vacation season, our Sunday school, as well as all the other meetings of the church, keeps up nobly in attendance. The number present last Sunday was especially large.

The pastor used his stereopticon to illustrate the lesson at the midweek prayer meeting, Thursday evening.

Methodist.

In the absence of the pastor, who is enjoying his vacation, Rev. McAdams, a prominent worker in our church and Sunday school, will occupy the pulpit next Sunday morning. It is hoped that the atendance will be large as Mr. McAdams is a forceful talker and the sermon will doubtless be instructive. During the service he will also favor the congregation with a vocal solo.

A meeting of the Sunday school board was held after the usual prayer service. The meeting was held in the auditorium, and although the attendance was not as large as was expected, much business for the future welfare of the Sunday school was transacted.

The attendance at last Sunday morning's preaching service was a little larger than usual and Rev. Bruce Evans, of West Glendale, delivered the sermon. Mrs. Morgan favored the congregation with a violin solo at this service.

The fifth of the series of union services betweeen this church and the Presbyterian church, will be held in the Presbyterian church next Sunday evening.

SALT LAKE OFFICIAL VISITS.

Assistant Chief Engineer Barnard, of the Salt Lake railway company, visited Tropico this week and spent some time looking over the company's track at this place. The object of his visit here was to estimate the cost of lowering, filling in and oiling the track through this town.

Some time ago a committee was appointed by the Tropico Improvement Association to correspond with the Salt Lake officials to see if it would not be possible to persuade that company to lower their rails on Glendale avenue in the Tropico territory. Supt. Cullen received the request in a very gentlemanly manner and at once sent the assistant chief engineer out here for the purpose of estimating the cost of that improvement.

Up to the present time it is not known by anyone in Tropico as to whether or not the company has decided to lower the tracks, but one thing is sure, and that is that at the next meeting of the Tropico Improvement Association on the third Monday of next month, the report which will be rendered by the committee on this matter will be well worth hearing. The report will concern everyone in Tropico.

SUNSHINE SOCIETY.

A Sunshine Society was launched Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ed. Ayers, of Palmer avenue. After the preliminary arrangements were disposed of, Mrs. A. M. Watson was selected as president and Miss Maude Moore as secretary. It was decided to take up the work of the Free Maternity Cottage located in Los Angeles, as the special work of the Tropico society. The charter members of the society include Mrs. A. M. Watson, who aided materially in the organization of the society, Mrs. L. L. Cushing, Mrs. Edward Ayers, Mrs. D. H. Imler, Mrs. Charles Turck, Mrs. Ralph Robinson, Mrs. Alfred Engelhardt, Mrs. Z. E. Bathrick, Mrs. J. J. Laws, Mrs. Robert Hopkins, Mrs. J. E. Hopkins, Misses Elizabeth Cushing, Maude Moore, Cora Hickman, Evalena Ayers and Lucreta Scofield.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. E. Hopkins on Glendale avenue.

CHILDREN'S PARTY.

A delightful little party was given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Henry Johnston for her little nephews and nieces at her home on Everett street.

Rugs were brought out of doors and summer school was in strenuous session that would fill the teachers of the winter terms with envy.

After the lunch which the little ones announced was "so good," a program was given by the children, each one singing his or her favorite song; then the aunties entertained them, Mrs. Johnston reading for them and Mrs. W. M. Johnston playing music requested—the "Thunderstorm" being much aprpeciated by these embryo musicians.

Those present were Wannity Every, Josephine Emery, Olive Bell Emery, Hugh Bryant, Dean Bryant, Albert Bryant and Gilbert Emery.

LADIES' SOCIALIST CLUB.

On last Friday evening a Ladies' Social Club was organized at the home of Mrs. R. Gilhousen, on Brand boulevard.

Miss Ethel Whithead (who is the State President of the Woman's Socialist Union) was present and acted as organizer, and gave the ladies much interesting advice and help. Mrs. G. Wilhoit was elected secretary and Mrs. Tatlow treasurer, the chairman to be appointed for each meeting, Mrs. Smith of West Fourth acting as chairman.

Papers on current events in the woman's realm, the suffrage question, etc., are to be read and discussed at each meeting, the object of the club being to make it a helpful study circle.

The ladies are to meet every two weeks at 2:30 on Fridays.

CELEBRATES 74TH BIRTHDAY.

Dr. A. H. Guernsey celebrated his 74th birthday at his home on Parke avenue, Tuesday. At noon of that day an elaborate birthday dinner was served at which a little family reunion was held. The home was prettily decorated for the affair, which was attended by members and relatives of the family only.

The guests present included Judge and Mrs. F. M. Guernsey of Wapaca, Wisconsin; G. H. Guernsey of Rochester, N. Y., and Miss Carkers and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Graves of Los Angeles.

Mr. Broxholme is starting to set out 2000 winter tomato plants.

Dr. Cox and family are planning to go on a vacation soon to Catalina Island.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Adams have returned home from a ten-days' stay at Catalina.

Dr. F. L. Osenburg, dentist, Watson Block, Fourth and Glendale avenue. Phone Sunset 293.

The Aid society of the Congregational church held their regular meeting at the church, Wednesday evening.

Messrs. Rethg and Baldwin are now opening up a first-class grocery store at the corner of Colorado and Central avenue.

The Los Angeles Construction Co. is erecting an artistic bungalow of four rooms to cost $2500 for Mr. Geo. W. Kauber of Acacia avenue.

A. M. Dunn, the owner of one or two large printing plants in Los Angeles has decided to make Eagle Rock his home and will erect a $3500 residence on Ellenwood Heights. California Bungalow Co. designers and contractors.
